Answers, tips available at Glenbard North financial aid night

Parents concerned about the cost of college are invited to a free seminar at Glenbard North High School.

Susan Daly from College Planners, Inc. will discuss financial aid options, letting parents know how to pay for their children's college education without going bankrupt in the process.

"How to get your fair share" will be presented at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 30, at the school, 990 N. Kuhn Road in Carol Stream.

Daly will discuss how income affects eligibility, the importance of deadlines, parental and student assets, single/divorced/remarried parents' dilemma and how to shop financial aid packages.

To reserve a seat at the seminar, please call guidance office secretary Sharon Aurelius at (630) 681-3107.
